

AUSTRALIAN DIPLOMA OF DERMOSCOPY

Now in its third year, The Australian Diploma of Dermoscopy, offers a unique opportunity to develop advanced skills in the diagnosis of both pigmented and non pigmented skin lesions.

Training in dermoscopy improves diagnostic accuracy and is now considered the standard of care for practitioners assessing pigmented skin skin lesions.

Dermoscopy allows diagnosis of melanoma at an earlier more curable stage and reduces the biopsy rate for benign lesions .

Suite 6 2081 Moggill Road
Kenmore QLD 4069 AUSTRALIA

P +61 7 3363 1606
F +61 7 3878 2405

E info@sccanz.com.au
W www.sccanz.com.au

SKIN CANCER COLLEGE of
AUSTRALIA & NEW ZEALAND

SKIN CANCER COLLEGE of
AUSTRALIA & NEW ZEALAND

AUSTRALIAN DIPLOMA OF DERMOSCOPY

2010

UNIQUE FEATURES OF THIS COURSE INCLUDE:

- Suitable for complete novices as well as those already using dermoscopy who wish to hone their skills
- Developed specifically for Australian primary care practitioners
- Introductory workshop to acquire basic skills in dermoscopy, dermoscopic photography and web based learning
- 10 fortnightly online modules using high resolution images collected from Australian primary care settings.
- Highly interactive format with online meetings and case discussion forums.
- Allocation of an experienced tutor/ mentor to each student
- A focus on clinical and dermoscopic photography both as a learning tool and to facilitate follow up of patients with atypical lesions not reaching the threshold for biopsy
- Fulfills the dermoscopy component of the SCCANZ Fellowship, is approved for RACGP/ ACRRM QA & CPD points and financial and academic credit towards the IMED 7003 course of the UQ Masters program in Primary Care Skin Cancer Medicine.

COMMENCEMENT OF THE COURSE:

The 2010 Course commences with an introductory workshop on the 5th and 6th of June at the John Flynn Hospital Auditorium, Tugun on the Gold Coast, with the online component running through to the 30th October.

Full details can be found at:

<http://www.sccanz.com.au/training/australian-dermoscopy-diploma-2010/>

or email add@sccanz.com.au

